Introduction

Yucatan has a lot of endemics and regional endemics, and on top of that, many North American wintering birds. We recorded 261 species, including all possible known endemics at the time. We did not see Yucatan Gnatcatcher, which was split from White-lored only a few months after our visit. We didn't try for it as we were unfortunately unaware of its future status. It is possible but hard to see it near Rio Lagartos, but actually we did not visit a good area for this species during our trip.

Information

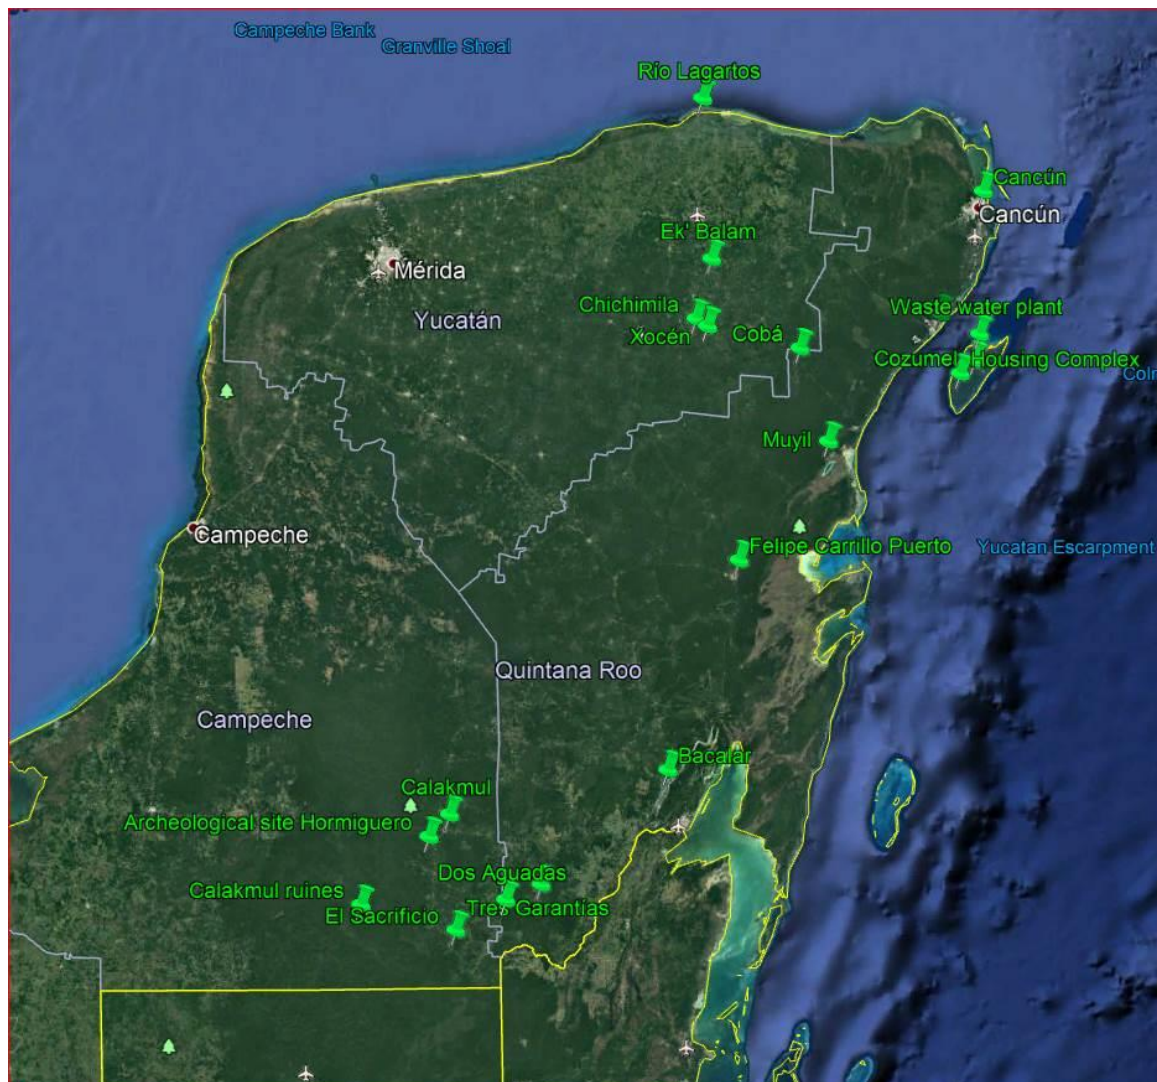

We prepared our trip based on reports found on CloudBirders and observation coordinates from both e-bird and Observado.

A few of the reports with the most useful information are:

- ✓ Independent Budget Birding August 11-20, 2016 Ross and Melissa Gallardy
Great report with detailed maps, coordinates and descriptions of the sites we visited.
- ✓ Report on a Birding Trip to the Yucatán Peninsula, Mexico, December 2017, Aidan G. Kelly
- ✓ Northeast Yucatán Peninsula including Isla Cozumel, 8 - 23 February 2015, David Alan Showler
- ✓ Yucatán Peninsula & Cozumel Island 19-30 January 2015, Håkan Thorstensson
- ✓ SOUTHERN MEXICO: 07/03 - 08/04/2008, Hans Matheve

Visited places

In many trip reports, there is a lot of information about frequently visited places in Yucatan. In this report, we are only adding new information not found in other reports (see below).

✓ Cozumel Island

- Dirt Road to Waste Water Treatment Plant, north of the city
See other trip reports for details.

- Abandon Housing Complex, south of the city

A small village with nice, natural gardens. You are birdwatching from the small roads in the village. Many birds, both endemics and migratory species, are present.

✓ Playa del Carmen

We just did some birding in the harbor where the ferries are leaving for Cozumel. Actually, this was not a “real” birding destination.

✓ Coba

See trip report of Hans Matheve.

✓ Chichimila

In this village, we had dinner at a restaurant situated in a nice patch of forest. We were birding there for an hour. We had some nice birds at the spot, but nothing that is not possible on other places.

✓ Xocén

See Ross Gallardy's report for details.

✓ Ek Balam

This is an archeological site, in between Valladolid and Rio Lagartos. Like most of the archeological sites, it is located in nice forest. The site is only open from 8 o'clock. Be there in time to enter the place before other tourists are arriving. See coordinates for Singing Quail.

- ✓ Rio Lagartos
 - Track to San Salvador Ranch
 - See Ross Gallardy's report for details.

- Village and mangroves

There are feeders for hummingbirds at Posada Ría Maya. From the restaurant, you have a nice view over the mangroves. To explore these, a boat trip is essential.

- Parque Naturel Rio Lagartos
Here I mean the places we visited in the forest near Rio Lagartos, but outside of the mangroves. We only visited a small area of the Parque Naturel. The entrance is very close to the track to the San Salvador Ranch. We walked along a track that is ending at a cenote. This is a stakeout for American Pygmy Kingfisher.
- Crossroads south of the village
See coordinates for details. Habitat is a little bit the same as on the track to the San Salvador Ranch, but more degraded. Near the crossroads, we saw Botteri's Sparrow.

- ✓ Felipe Carrillo Puerto
This is a well-known site, described in many trip reports. There is only one accessible track going into this reserve.
- ✓ Calakmul
This site is well known and described in many trip reports. Go birding along the entrance road and around the temples. You will need to pass three gates/checkpoints to get to the site. The first one is at the turn-off from the main road. This gate opens for business at 6 AM, but if you want to start birding earlier, you should be able to pass it before that time – but you will need to return to buy your first entry ticket after 6AM.

At the second gate (at about km 20), the ticket you bought at the first gate is checked, and you have to buy a second one. Finally, you need to buy your third and last ticket at the archeological site itself.

The entrance road between the 2nd and the 3rd gate is the best place to see Ocellated Turkey and Great Curassow. Try to be along the road as one of the first cars in the morning. Both species are foraging along the road at that time.

✓ East of Calakmul

○ Tres Garantias

This site is described in Ross Gallardy's report.

○ Dos Aguadas

The observations at this location are included in the list (see below) with the observations of Tres Garantias.

The road south of Dos Aguadas runs through nice forest. Unfortunately, a very broad new road is under construction now, which will likely have a detrimental effect on the birdlife. We visited this place in the middle of the day, with high temperatures. Bird activity was low and only near some water pools there was activity. Here we saw both White-collared and Red-capped Manakin.

- El Sacrificio – along HW 269 to Xkan

We were birding at two sites south of this village. See coordinates. There is another small village even closer to both sites, but I did not find a name of it.

- Site 1: a small paved road runs through an area with patches of good forest, unfortunately with active logging in progress. We walked from the turnoff from the main road south of the small village until the marking point “birding area 2” on the map. Looking in Google Earth, there seem to be more patches of nice forest further than we went.

- Site 2: there are a few trails in the forest just behind the small village. The start of these trails is easy to find. We only spent a few hours here, probably not enough to have a good chance to see more species. Others have seen for example Black-throated Shrike-tanager here.

- Archeological site Hormiguero

Region near Calakmul

✓ Bacalar

This is the closest city to the stakeout for Rufous-breasted Spinetail. See here.

✓ Archeological site Muyil

This site is about 45 minutes north of Felipe Carrillo Puerto along HW307. It is an archeological site with a mix of forest and mangrove habitat, holding some interesting species. You can even do a boat trip to the mangroves. However, it is not an essential place at all. In our case, it was a perfect place to hang around for a few hours to end our tour before driving to the airport.

GPS-coordinates

You can find the coordinates of the observations made by Wim here.

By this link, you can find more coordinates for the places we visited.

Time zone

There are two time zones in the Yucatan peninsula during winter time. In the east of the peninsula (in the province of Quintana Roo), the time difference with Brussels is 7 hours all year long. For the west and north of the peninsula (in the province of Yucatan) the time difference with Brussels is 6 hours during winter time and 7 hours during summer time.

Accommodation

✓ By booking.com

○ Cozumel Island

There is a lot of accommodation on the island. We stayed in a small hotel in the center of the city, the Sun Suites. We booked for 2 nights but we missed the last ferry on our day of arrival and only spent 1 night there. We only had to pay for 1 night.

○ Calakmul

We stayed at the Chicanna Ecovillage. This lodge is along HW186 and it is situated more or less halfway between the entrance road to Calakmul (46 Km and 106 km to the archeological site) and the birding sites east of Calakmul: Tres Garantias (86 Km) and El Sacrificio (75 Km). In that sense, it is an ideal place to stay. I am wondering if there are more hotels or lodges closer to both places. All the roads we drove on in this region were paved roads.

✓ Booked directly with the owner

○ Rio Lagartos

Posada “Ria Maya”. The owner is Diego Nuñez. He is also the guide for a boat trip into the mangroves. We booked both trips in the mangroves and the hotel for a good price (US$454 for both boat trips and 2 double rooms for 2 nights). See also his website.

- ✓ Looked for during the trip
 - Playa del Carmen
We stayed in one of the big hotels along HW 307. No further details.
 - Valladolid
It was hard to find a hotel with free places in this city. Finally, we found a free room at the Casa Hamaca Guesthouse.
 - Felipe Carrillo Puerto
We stayed twice at the “Hotel Y Restaurante El Faisan Y El Venado”, a more basic hotel. From here it is only a 5 minutes’ drive to the track for birding.

Car rental

We hired a Dodge Grand Caravan 7 from AVIS. It was a rather big car, so we had a lot of space. For the roads we have taken, a 4-wheel drive is not essential at all.

Flights

Direct flight with TUI Flights between Brussels and Cancun.

Ferry

Several companies are providing ferry transport to Cozumel Island. There are ferries leaving the harbor in the city of Playa del Carmen (ferry for passengers only) and others leaving from the harbor south of the city (for cars). We took a car ferry to Cozumel and did not book a ticket in advance. The ferries are sailing quite frequently and when you are at the pier well in time, you can be sure to have a place on the ferry.
